In parallel, they will be involved in the “Agility Games” - outdoor challenges that will teach problem solving, develop adaptation skills and collaborative work.

Doors will also be open for children in our Łódź offices, in Poland, on Friday 31st May.

“We are happy to renew our participation in the “Kids Day” initiative, which this year will be focusing on agility - a core skill that embodies a competitive advantage for business -, and that is also a key aspect endorsed by our corporate culture.
